

Cliff College Festival 2019 Monday 27 May

We have enjoyed this festival as a group from church for five years. This year we are going for a Day Trip on Bank Holiday Monday – we hope this means more people will be able to join us – everyone is invited.

The Festival is all weekend (feel free to find out more if you want to do it like that – George will be there in his role at the college), but Monday is the biggest day when many extra people come on site.

There is a full programme of worship and Bible study, for all ages and in all styles, creative activities, performances, resources for mission, seminars, sports and lots more. The theme this year is Into All the World exploring how we can share our faith story with other people

Day rate

£14 – Adult
£10 – 16 and 17 years
(plus over 65s, disabled and those on benefits with proof)
FREE! – 17 and under

We will travel in cars, working together to make sure everyone has a lift who needs it. The Bailey car will leave about 7.30am to be there by 9am, and depart about 9.30pm after the main celebrations are finished. Please feel free to make your own plans though! If enough people want to come we will look into group travel... but this relies on lots of people responding soon.

Please let us know if you want to come so we can co-ordinate travel and booking and as best suits... with enough of us we might get a discount ☺

Looking forward to it! George Bailey
