

Debbie Jones	Interviewed by Edna Murray
	Absolutely fantastic day. I'm new to the area. There are so many people, children, so much chatter. Feel that the library is part of the community. Already have a sense of belonging. Clock looks fantastic. Community has rallied together.

Amanda Boyne and Cheryl Falconer	Interviewed by Edna Murray
Kerr Mackie School – Year 1 teachers	Have brought the exhibition down for the community to look at. A really good day. Community has been wonderful. Did project around 'if Oakwood clock could talk, what would it tell us?' Have visited shops, seen what has changed, children have designed new clocks, looked at the history, including photos. Bringing work out into the community.

Deputy Lord Lieutenant	Interviewed by Edna Murray
Major Stan Hardy	Knocked out by number of people here. An amazing day. A family day. Is a newcomer – only lived in Oakwood ten years. A nice looking place to live. Park, shops and places to eat. Has a community atmosphere. People friendly and kind. An important day. Used to drive down Princes Avenue looking at the clock leaning over – eternally grateful to the whole community for contributing. Hugely successful project – on time and on budget.

Jo	Interviewed by Edna Murray
Lives in Roundhay	Fantastic – so many people despite it being freezing and raining. Bought book on Heritage Trail.

Dave Sellars	Interviewed by Edna Murray
	A fantastic event despite weather. A big turn out from local community. Bricks are a nice idea. Wife Jane is in environmental group which has a brick. Clock looks really nice – clean edifice, and a nice shelter underneath.

Cllr Christine Macniven	Interviewed by Edna Murray
	Absolutely wonderful day. Everyone has been telling me they would be coming. About 2000 people leading up to the speeches. It's the whole effort that community has put in. Everyone so proud and pleased to have their clock back. A perfect restoration. Exactly how it looked when it first arrived. Major donor – Marilyn and Graham Stowe have a panel. Helen Plimley unveiled another plaque to other supporters – she did a beautiful speech.

	Burial of the time capsule. Lord Mayor did major reveal. Pavoirs – bricks with inscriptions. Look really nice. Also here are the workmen who worked on the project.
--	--